

THE PLANTERS TO FARMERS

Planters Loose Leaf Tobacco Warehouse

TANDY QUISENBERRY, Proprietor

SPRINGFIELD, KY., DECEMBER 20, 1911.

Our Sales since our opening sale have been very satisfactory to our farmers friends. Clean and Colory tobaccos ranging from from $10 to $15.50 average. We will have no more sales at the PLANTERS HOUSE until JANUARY 12, 1912, and we would advise all farmers who have good medium crops and colory tobacco, to hold same until after the holidays. We believe the putting on of several new buyers by the different factories will make the market stronger.

We Are Here To Take Care of All Tobacco

THE NEWS-LEADER

SPRINGFIELD, KY.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY

JAMES R. NOE JOSEPH POLIN
Editors and Publishers.

THURSDAY, DEC 21 1911.

Once more the Christmas Holidays are with us, and with them comes the usual joy that only the Christmas season can bring. It is joy alike for old and young, from the wee tot celebrating the visit of his Santa Claus to the old, gray-bearded man. All find something to rejoice over when Christmas rolls around. Though it seems to come more often than formerly its joys are as undimmed as ever.

The hum of business ceases somewhat and the world gives itself to joy. The NEWS-LEADER office force desires to be in the celebration and for that reason we will issue no paper next week, in order that we may have this week to celebrate the joy which only it can bring.

When our next issue comes out the year 1911 will have passed into history and we will be looking for what 1912 has in store for us. So we take this opportunity to wish you each and all a Merry Christmas, and many more.

The Bank Statement called for by the Secretary of State, and published in this paper by the Peoples Deposit Bank, shows this institution is in a strong prosperous condition.

As indicated by its loans, $384,058.77, it is taking good care of its patrons.

The patrons in return are showing their appreciation of the liberal service by their individual deposits, $285,400.05.

The Bank officials thank the public for their generous support and promise they shall have the same good service in the future as in the past.

This tract of land has a house and other improvements on it. Debt and interest to day of sale $441.42; cost, $50.00; total amount to be raised, $491.42.

For the purchase price, the purchaser or purchasers, with approved security or sureties, must execute bond bearing legal interest from date of sale until paid and having the force and effect of a judgment. Bidders will be prepared to comply promptly with these terms. C. F. GIBBS, M. C. W. C. C.

"Juryman," To "X. Y. Z."

In a recent issue of your paper in which "X. Y. Z." replies to "Juryman," quoting the law giving County Judges the right to release prisoners from jail by hiring them out, we failed to obtain all the information desired. Surely the law does not give a judge the right to release any and all prisoners from jail by hiring them out. There must be a limit somewhere. We can easily see the justice of hiring out a prisoner who has been sentenced to pay a fine in order to insure payment of same, but in cases such as carrying concealed weapons, where the law provides both fine and imprisonment, we question the right of a judge under the law to make the jail sentence a fine by hiring him out.

Again, a jury in a case for selling liquor illegally may say in their verdict that a man must pay a fine and also serve a term in jail all though the law may not provide a jail sentence as a part penalty in case of conviction as for carrying concealed weapons, are we to believe that a judge has as right as a "discretion" to set aside the verdict of twelve men sworn to try the case and commute the jail sentence to a fine merely by hiring out the prisoner. If offender is tried in the Circuit Court has the county judge the power to thus dispose of cases tried in the higher court? There may be law for it, but it is against all reason.

All prosperers are to be thus released it becomes not a matter of "discretion" but a matter of settled public policy. Since "X. Y. Z." says that our county judge is responsible for these releases and since the judge does not deny it although several weeks has elapsed, we are forced to the unwelcome conclusion that he is responsible. But we are still at a loss how he is to decide what prisoners he will hire out and at the same time do his part in protecting the public whose guardian he is without investigating the cases that come before him for such disposition. Does he summon the witnesses for and against the prisoner and decide on the merits of the case, or does the release from jail come to all who are able to put up the money?

Certainly, if it is a law for this procedure, it is being sadly abused and needs wiping off the Statutes. If there is no law for it then some of our officers need punishment for not performing their duty.

Small Millions of Years Old.
A petrified prehistoric seal, embedded in the heart of a large piece of limestone, was discovered a few days ago by quarrymen working at Cheddar Cliff, Wales, upon some large boulders of stone which were discovered in the middle of the great ice sheet which covered the country some years ago. The discovery is of distinct interest to the geologists on account of the great age of the find, as situated upon a very high strata, it must be millions of years since the seal lived.

Prosperous Welsh Colony.
There is a Welsh colony in Patagonia, established 45 years ago, that has developed a fertile region in what was a waste before. It is in the Chubut valley, and among its enterprises are more than 250 miles of irrigating canals.
